I have to admit that I'm addicted to e-mail. Whenever I get home, I and check to see if I've gotten any new . I even enjoy reading of jokes and stories. I usually read all my new messages before I . A lot of times I'll send an immediate . I've had to create a lot of folders to store all the messages I've received. I don't want to them, because you never know when you might want to read them again. I mean, maybe one day you don't get any new . If that's the case, you're glad to have all the old ones to look at. If you're also addicted to e-mail, I'm sure you can relate.
