

CHELSEA, SOUTH AFRICA

Hello!

I am Chelsea, from South Africa.

I am 10 years old and I live in Cape Town with my two brothers, my mum and my dad.

I want to be a journalist like my mum when I grow up. I love reading and learning about people who help change the world.

My dad is a writer. He writes books and articles about inventors, explorers and History.

My brothers are older than me. They are twins. They are 17 years old. They are both in high school and they also love reading and learning about the past.
