

WRITING FINAL TASK: A CHILDHOOD MEMORY

We're going to describe a memory from when we were little.

Look for a photo of a day with your family or friends. Bring it to class and describe it using the following questions: (the final product can be done in their journals or in a Padlet, it will be a nice memory album as well as a bonding activity)

- How old were you in the photo? (I was... years old)
- Where were you? (I was at/in ...)
- What was the weather like? (It was...)
- Who were you with? (I was with ...)
- How were you feeling? (I was ...)

Example

In this photo I was six years old. I was in a swimming pool with my aunt and uncle. It was sunny and very hot and we were on holidays on an island, in Mallorca. There were lots of beautiful beaches. I was very excited because I loved playing in swimming pools.
